

Pitney Bowes, a global technology company, provides shipping and mailing solutions, data management software, and location intelligence offerings, powering billions of physical and digital transactions in the connected and borderless world of commerce.

Pitney Bowes Software is currently seeking a Consultant to serve as a member of the Professional Services team and provide expert knowledge with data governance, master data management and the use, installation, and integration of Pitney Bowes Software products in Poland.

Consultant ETL

Workplace: Bielsko-Biala

Essential Duties:

- Application of expert knowledge with regard to the use, installation, and integration of Pitney Bowes Spectrum Data Quality Software products
- Interaction with clients on projects to deliver innovative solutions to diverse customer problems
- Assumes responsibility for acquiring knowledge of the technologies and products necessary to the completion of assigned tasks
- Works with relative autonomy on the detailed analysis, design and development of project components
- Works with all levels of client and associates
- Build best practices and reusable components and solutions on Pitney Bowes Software product

Required skills:

- Experience of working with data analysis and transformation
- Basic programming skills (Java, Groovy)
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- English language skills at a business level
- B.S. degree in Computer Science
- Ability to work autonomously
- Ability to travel

Nice to have:

- Work experience in any of the following fields: Master Data Management, Data Quality, Data Warehouse, Data Modelling, BI, RDBMS

We offer:

- Permanent employment contract
- Opportunities to grow and develop your career: personal development plan, access to e-learning platforms (Udemy, Lynda.com)
- Flexible work schedule
- Remote work opportunities
- English language training course with native speakers
- Employee Referral Program (up to $1500)
- Life insurance
- Health promotion: private medical care, Multisport card, fresh fruits, table tennis room, play room, shower, bike parking
- Free parking, Free beverages (delicious coffee)

APPLY